

2016 Northwest Narrative Medicine Conference

Featured Keynote Speaker: Louise Aronson, M.D., author of “A History of the Present Illness”

A weekend-long event for everyone interested in the connection between narrative skills and healing and wellness.

We welcome patients, healthcare professionals, caregivers, writers, artists, students, residents, educators and researchers.

The conference will be held at the Collaborative Life Sciences Building (CLSB), 2730 SW Moody Ave, Portland, OR.

September 16-18, 2016

- 7.5 AMA PRA Category 1 credits for healthcare professionals
- Reduced student rate available

Sponsors: OHSU Provost's Office & OHSU WRITEs; Portland Art Museum; OHSU Division of Hospital Medicine; OHSU Diversity Advisory Council; OHSU School of Nursing; Write Around Portland

OHSU School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

<https://nwnmcollaborative.org/>

Request reasonable accommodation for this event at 503 494-2834 or woodcoed@ohsu.edu

